

The airport is some 30km away from the centre of Athens and Victory Inn hotel. Victory Inn hotel is connected with the airport by:

Taxi

By taxi it is some 45 minutes (this depends on the traffic) and the cost is approximately 45-50 Euros (from 5 am to midnight) and 50-60 Euros (from midnight to 5 am).

Metro

Blue line (line 3: Athens International Airport – Aegaleo terminal station) connects the airport with the centre of Athens within approximately 45 minutes. Our guest needs to change at Monastiraki Station and take the green line (line 1) towards Victoria Station. Metro trains run from 6:00am to 23:30am.

From Victoria station take the Street Heiden (with direction to 28th Octovriou – Patisision avenue). Turn left to 28th Octovriou-Patisision avenue and after 500metre at number 106, turn right and you will see the Victory Inn hotel at Trias Str. Number 20.

Ticket price per person: 6euros

Suburban Railway

By Suburban Railway (06:00am – 22:00pm)

From the airport you can take the Suburban Train (Proastiakos in greek) to Neratziotissa Station and then change and take the metro green line 1 to Victoria (the journey is approximately 1hour and cost 6 euro/per person).

Bus

The closest express bus line is: X95 Syntagma Square – Athens International Airport Express. The buses are running 24 hours a day (approximately every 20 minutes). From the terminal station of Syntagma Square our guest needs to use either the metro or a taxi to reach Victory Inn.

A taxi from Syntagma to Victory Inn usually takes less than 15 min. and cost about 10 to 15 euro.

Ticket price per person: 3.20euros

From Piraeus

By metro line 1 (06:00 – 23:30)

Take the green line 1 from Piraeus direct to Victoria Station (it takes about 30 min.)
